Hamburg, June 14. From Berlin we hear, that a great part of the Elector of Brandenburgs Train of Artillery was brought thither, to be thence convoyed to Stetin, with the Siege of which place his Electoral Highness intends to begin the Campagne. The place is in great want of Provisions, and the Elector, for the more easie supply of his own Camp, hath promised, that whosoever shall bring any provisions to it, shall pay no Customs nor Duties. The Troops of the Duke of Zell, which were in Garison at Staden and Boxtehude, are marched towards Stetin, to join the Brandenburghers.

The Munster Troops are arrived near Landscroon, and are to be employed on the Siege of Elsenbourg. The King of Denmark has made the Sieur Meerheym Lieutenant-General of his Army. Letters from Liefland of the 7th instant, confirm the burning of Riga, the loss whereof is reckoned to amount unto 800000 Crowns.

Lunden in Schonen, June 18. His Majesty after a short stay here, continued his journy towards Malmoe, which place he has viewed himself, and will in few days actually besiege it. The 16 instant the Munster Troops joined our Army, and the same day one of our parties took a Major and 60 Horse that were in Garison at Ronneholme. This day we have advice, that the Suedes Fleet consisting in 25 Men of War were seen at Sea. Yesterday twelve Mortar-pieces were sent from Copenhagen to Malmoe, where the Guns have been heard to play very fiercely all this evening.

Strasburg, June 18. The Forces of the Circles commanded by the Duke of Saxen Eysenach, are still encamped near Wilstadt, expecting the arrival of their Artillery from Philipsbourg. Two days ago the Regiment of Dunwald came up to them, and to morrow they will pass the Rhine on a Bridge of Boats they have made at Luntzigh. They are now strong between 8 and 10000 men. From the Imperial Camp at Clemery, June 18. The Duke of Lorrain having the 14 instant observed the passages to the Enemies Camp, marched nearer to them the next day, but found them so advantageously posted, that he could not without much danger to his own men attack them.
